

Electronic ASI (Attachment Style Interview) pack

The electronic version of the Attachment Style Interview (ASI) pack for Adoption & Fostering and Child Care Interview Pack is the newly created version of the original paper-based ASI Interview Pack. It comes in a convenient PDF Acrobat format document that can be shared amongst members of the organisation and re-used an indefinite number of times. It is very simple to use, with clear distinction between standard questions and scoring instructions, which are fixed, and fill-able fields for notes, rating justifications, verbatim ratings and scores.

The cost of the Electronic ASI licence is £450 for a team, and £200 for individual practitioners and researchers. Discounted team price of £300 is available to voluntary organisations. Small agencies which use the ASI measure on a limited basis may also be eligible for a discounted fee in special circumstances. The version you receive will be labelled with your agency name or name.

Electronic PRI (Parenting Role Interview) pack:

For those who have trained in the PRI measure we can now provide an Electronic PRI Pack, the newly created version of the original paper-based pack. It comes in a convenient PDF Acrobat format document that can be shared amongst members of the organisation and re-used an indefinite number of times. It is very simple to use, with clear distinction between standard questions and scoring instructions, which are fixed, and fill-able fields for notes, rating justifications, verbatim ratings and scores.

The cost of the Electronic PRI licence is £120 (teams/agencies), £80 (voluntary organisations) and £70 (individuals). Small agencies which use the PRI measure on a limited basis may also be eligible for a discounted fee in special circumstances. The version you receive will be labelled with your agency name.
